

Approval is more likely with a co-borrower!

Finding a co-borrower can help you get approved for a Climb loan so you can attend class, gain new skills, and achieve your career goals.

Applications with a co-borrower are 24% more likely to be approved!¹

You could receive a lower interest rate on your loan!

35% of Climb students used co-borrowers!²

Co-borrower FAQs

What is a co-borrower?

A co-borrower is someone who agrees to sign onto the loan alongside the borrower. If the student borrower is unable to make payments on the loan, the co-borrower is responsible for making payments.

Who can be a co-borrower?

Anyone can be a co-borrower; your spouse, friends or family. However, it's important they know what that responsibility is.

What does a co-borrower need to understand?

Co-borrowers must also understand their role in supporting you in getting a loan. When co-borrowers sign onto a loan they will become responsible for the repayment if you are unable to make the payments yourself.

Apply with a co-borrower today: meetclimb.com/coborrower

*We only perform a soft credit pull upon application submission, so just reapplying will have no impact on your credit score!*³

¹ Based on a review of approved applications and denied applications from all time. Report pulled as of September 2019.

² Based on a review of funded applications from all time. Report pulled as of September 2019.

³ A hard credit pull is performed once a loan is funded.